TWELFTH YEAR. NO. 159.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, MONDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1896.

TWO CENTS

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

THE BEST IN THE LAND

New Equipment Added to the News Review Plant.

TWO FINE FOLDING MACHINES

The Handsomest Product of the Brown Company Placed In Position and Now In Working Order—Machinery Which Moves Like Human Beings.

The NEWS REVIEW plant, for years the best and most complete printing establishment in this part of the state, has been raised to even a higher standard by the acquisition of two folding machines, the finest product of the best concern making this machinery in America.

The first and largest machine is placed in the basement, and is a newspaper folder the equal of which cannot be found in the county. It can take a sheet anywhere in size from 36x48 inches to 14x21, and fold, bind and deliver it complete. It can be adjusted to fold twice, delivering a paper of eight pages at the second fold, or folding three times will deliver at the third fold a 16 page paper. If required the folder can again be changed, and doubling the sheet again will make a 32 page paper delivering on the fourth fold. The machine also pastes and trims the sheets, binding them neatly and so that they present a handsome appearance when ready for the reader. The capacity of the folder is only measured by the speed of the operator, and a conservative estimate of what it can do is from 2,500 to 3,500 finished eight page papers every hour.

In the press room connected with the job department stands the other folder, and a beauty it is. It feeds from points or gauges, just as the foreman desires, and is intended for high grade book work. It is not as large as the newspaper machine, the largest sheet being 24x36 and the smallest 12x18. Two folds will produce eight pages, and another turn through the rollers will make it 16. A new contrivance compels the sheet to fall at precisely the same point on the machine, making the folding much more accurate than if done by hand, and at a speed that is nothing short of wonderful.

The machines are the product of many years of constant improvement, and are marvels of complication. They work like so many human beings, and the manner in which the sheet is taken, passed through the folding, is cut, trimmed and bound, is an operation which can only be appreciated when witnessed. A multitude of tapes, rollers, belts and bars make up a device which is perfection. They occupy but little floor space, but are costly. The shafting is all of the best cold rolled steel, and the workmanship cannot be surpassed. Taken as a whole, each folder makes a model of machinery, handsome in appearance and lacking nothing in the way of improvement. They were placed in position by Fred Wendt, an expert machinist in the employ of the Brown company.

The addition of these folders makes the NEWS REVIEW plant not only the best in the county, but places it in the front rank among the enterprising and pushing newspapers of Eastern Ohio. With the equipment of the press room so complete, this office can print more papers in a given time than any other office in the county, and the job room affords unequaled facilities for doing the best work in this part of the state.

BROKEN HEARTED.

The Rat Alley Organ Is Weeping and Wailing.

The Rat Alley organ, rendered desperate by the fact that its limited circulation is becoming less daily, has for some time past had a canvasser upon the streets and through the alleys, pleading that new names might be given to bolster up its rapidly waning circulation. The canvasser puts this plea forth to the public:

"Are you taking any local daily paper? I am canvassing for the lower region sheet. What—you don't want it? Well, now, that's strange. I think you ought to take it. What—you won't give me your name as a subscriber? Well, are you taking the NEWS REVIEW? What's that my business? Well, the owner of my paper wants me to take the names of all those who are subscribing for the NEWS REVIEW. You see, he wants to find out how many subscribers they have in the city. By the way, what's your name, lady? Smith, did you say? Well, now, that's funny. That's my name, don't you know. We may be relations. What? You hope not. Well, that's good. Good day."

his stale story, claiming relationship with every one he meets, and attempting to force the delectable sheet upon a suffering public. Verily 'tis a truth that some corpses do not know that they are dead, but endeavor to convince the people that they are still alive. And all the time the NEWS REVIEW keeps on the even tenor of its way, needing no canvasser to attempt a forced circulation, but daily adding to its already handsome list of subscribers, delighting one and all by and through the medium of giving all the news, local and foreign, in manner which makes it a welcome guest at the homes and firesides of our best citizens, men and women who voluntarily subscribe for it.

By the way, fellows, is it not about time for you to again plead with the manager of the NEWS REVIEW to agree to give less local matter? Do you still find it as hard to meet the emergency as you did a few months since? Keep up good heart, ye desolate ones, even if you go to the wall. "Faint heart ne'er won fair lady," you know. Brag, boast and bluff have stood you in good stead for many a day, ye bluffers, and you may possibly deceive the people for a few months longer.

Further, weary ones. Don't for a moment get the idea in your head that you can convince the public that the NEWS REVIEW is not a paper of general circulation, in the very true sense of the term. And don't for a moment believe that the public at large will take any stock in your self-assured veracity. You have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Your word, like your paper, don't amount to much from a moral standpoint. And, by the way, ye boasters, the equipment of the NEWS REVIEW is worth four times the equipment of your miserable plant, and you know it, and it is none of your business who owns this plant, even if you are prompted to ask such questions by a miserable creature on Fourth street, who is only second to yourself in meanness, a fellow who is dictatorial to those whom he thinks he can browbeat, smooth and suave to those whom he thinks he can use, or whom he dares to class himself as equal with, and serve as a slave to those in authority or possessed of wealth. In a nutshell, creature whom it is impossible to insult, and who is beneath the notice of any honest or manly man. Ta, ta, boasters. Selah.

The ladies desire that those singers who did such good work at the Schive-rea meeting aid Mrs. Trego, and this evening fill the seats in the choir at the Methodist Protestant church. It is requested that all join in the movement, and by their help assist in the success, not only of tonight's meeting, but at every meeting while Mrs. Trego is here.

A NICE COLLECTION.

A Nice Church Collection, Worthy of Notice.

In the announcement made by the pastor of the First M. E. church on Sunday morning was one which attracted general attention, and there were genial smiles throughout the large congregation when Doctor Huston said:

"The collection on last Sunday was $5,816. It cannot be hoped that the collections of today will reach that sum; but it is desired that you contribute liberally, as a good start is always a good feature in the right."

The debt of the church was announced as $5,600. Some additional indebtedness, amounting to about $150, has been unearthened, and the sum of $66 is the figure with which the congregation faces anew, on the right side of the ledger, the financial problem. Surely the members of the First M. E. church are to be congratulated.

SELLING COSTELLO'S POSSESSIONS.

Sheriff Gill Will Satisfy the Judgment Tomorrow.

The property of Patrick Costello in East End and on Sixth street will be sold under the sheriff's hammer tomorrow afternoon to satisfy claims held against it by Smith Fowler, aggregating over $7,000. Sheriff Gill will be in the city tomorrow, and will conduct the sale. The East End property will be sold at 1 o'clock, and that on Sixth street at 2 o'clock.

A DOZEN DRUNKS.

They Drove Out the Calcutta Road Saturday.

A lady and her son, well known in the city, drove from Calcutta to this place last Saturday afternoon, and having heard that drunken people frequently went that way counted them. From the village to the top of McKinnon hill they met many vehicles, and of the men they carried 12 were drunk while four women were in an advanced stage of intoxication.

RECOVERING.

Mrs. Hemphill Has Been Brought to Her Home.

Mrs. Hemphill, who was severely injured near Beaver Falls a few weeks ago, is recovering, and has been removed to her home in this city. The injuries she received will not be permanent, and the lady will soon be well. Doctor Hemphill, her husband, has gone to Irondale, where he may locate.

And thus this silly fellow carries on

THEIR FIRST MEETING

Mrs. Trego Talked to a Large Assemblage.

GIVEN A CORDIAL GREETING

Evangelistic Meetings at the Methodist Protestant Church Commenced Yesterday Afternoon, and Will Continue During the Week—You Have an Invitation.

Mrs. R. J. Trego, national evangelist of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, is not a stranger in our midst. The lady was here some two years since, and was an instrument, in the hands of Providence, in the accomplishment of much good, and she made many warm friends in East Liverpool.

Rev. O. S. Reed, pastor of the Christian church, opened the meeting with prayer on Sunday afternoon, at the Methodist Protestant church, where meetings will be conducted every night this week. On Tuesday night, Dec. 15, the services will open at 7 o'clock and close at 8:30, in order to give all those who desire to do so an opportunity to hear Rev. O. S. Reed's lecture, to be given in the First United Presbyterian church, the lecture to begin at 8:30.

Mrs. Trego's talk yesterday was of an eminently practical character. She believes in "clean hands and a pure heart." She believes in individual effort in Christian life, asserting that you have a part which no other can perform. She believes that Christianity should be carried into the Christian's business life, and permeate it from center to circumference. She believes in eyes, ears, tongue, hands and hearts being consecrated to the cause of Him who is the Giver of all good gifts. She is evidently a good, pure and true woman, and a very able and eloquent speaker, and you should not fail to hear her, as she will bring good into your life, if you will but permit her to do so. You have a cordial invitation to be present tonight, at the Methodist Protestant church.

The ladies desire that those singers who did such good work at the Schive-rea meeting aid Mrs. Trego, and this evening fill the seats in the choir at the Methodist Protestant church. It is requested that all join in the movement, and by their help assist in the success, not only of tonight's meeting, but at every meeting while Mrs. Trego is here.

TAKE 'EM OFF!

Yes, and You Must Do It In the Church.

Hats, ladies, are cast aside at the opera house, and it is a splendid feature, as will be vouchered by for opera goers, those who have been awfully annoyed in days gone by. And they should be cast aside in our churches, as well, as they are an intolerable nuisance. This decision was arrived at by the writer yesterday, when he sat by an array of towering plumes, feathers and flowers, fearfully and wonderfully formed, absolutely obstructing the view and making it next to impossible to see the eloquent speaker, unless resort was made to extremely artful dodging, and such a measure naturally attracts much attention and is unseemly in a place of worship. A number of our readers have entered the same protest, and if the law does not embrace churches, then action should be taken by legislators and the fault remedied. Take them off, ladies, and blessings will be called down on your devoted heads.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

They Were Held in Memory of the Late Miss Hattie Curry.

Memorial services were held last evening by the Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church over the death of Miss Hattie Curry. Touching addresses were made by Doctor Lee, George Murphy, George Matheeny and W. A. Hill, and special music was rendered.

ABATING NIJUSANCES.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess Has His Hands Full.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess was in East End this morning looking for a number of people who are responsible for some of the nuisances reported to him since his appointment.

The dogs poisoned on Thompson hill recently have all been buried. The dogs have been lying on the hill for more than a week, and complaint was made to the mayor.

KILLED AT ROCHESTER

Harry Harrison Met the Fate of So Many Brakemen.

Harry Harrison, a former resident of Wellsville and well known in this city, was run over and killed on the railroad near Rochester, Saturday night. Only meager details of the fatality were obtained. The young man was a brakeman, and it is presumed he lost his life while endeavoring to make a coupling. The remains will be taken to Summittville, the late home, tomorrow morning and interred. Harrison has relatives living in this city.

NO SELECTION,

But Association Trustees Talked About a Secretary.

Secretary Pierce arrived in the city at noon, and was in conference with the trustees of the Young Men's Christian association this afternoon. He brought with him the references of B. A. Barlow, who has been an assistant secretary in the main building of the New York city association for several years. Mr. Pierce will go to New York, and if he thinks Mr. Barlow is the right man for the place he will be secured.

ONE MORE.

Diphtheria Has Fastened Itself Upon Another Child.

The first new case of diphtheria for several days was reported this morning to the health officer, the afflicted party being a child of Robert Orin, Wall street. The Pilgrim residence was fumigated this afternoon, and the Core house, East End, will be attended to tomorrow. Health Officer Ogden says the city is once more almost free from the disease, as there is only one case in town.

NOT MUCH REST.

Potteries Will Shut Down For a Few Days.

The East End pottery will shut down one week from Wednesday for a loaf of a week.

The East Liverpool pottery will shut down next Saturday for two weeks.

The clay hands at the West End were given a rest last Saturday.

The funeral of William Mitcheson took place this afternoon from his late residence, and was largely attended. Interment was made at Riverview.

A GROUNDED WIRE.

Has Been Causing a Vast Deal of Annoyance.

The linemen of the light company spent today looking for a grounded wire. The wire is thought to be the cause of the buzzing which has annoyed so many patrons of the telephone system for several days. Manager Gilchrist could not locate the defect, although he spent some time going over the city.

HURT HIS FOOT.

And Young Cain Was Instantly Ready For War.

Red Shea was pushing a wheelbarrow through the Diamond this afternoon when he injured the foot of a boy named Cain. He at once slapped the other, and the battle began. Shea was knocked into a doorway, and Cain was making it very warm for him when bystanders separated them.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

They Were Held in Memory of the Late Miss Hattie Curry.

Memorial services were held last evening by the Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church over the death of Miss Hattie Curry. Touching addresses were made by Doctor Lee, George Murphy, George Matheeny and W. A. Hill, and special music was rendered.

A Present.

Yesterday was the anniversary of Cornelius Cronin, the manager of the decorating department of the Standard pottery. Knowing this the employees on Saturday afternoon presented him with a handsome muffler. Mr. Cronin was considerably surprised, but graciously acknowledged his gratitude.

Broke His Arm.

A 12 year old son of William Burcaw, near the township line school house, fell from an apple tree Saturday evening, and broke his right arm at the wrist. The lad was taken to Wellsville where a physician reduced the fracture.

On the Bridge at Night.

The novelty of a walk across the bridge has not yet worn off, and there are many who delight in undertaking thefeat. Last evening three young ladies, apparently without fear, made the journey over and back in the dark.

DIVORCE AND ALIMONY

What Mrs. Edmonston Wants From Her Husband.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES ARE MADE

The Wife of a Prominent Business Man Asks to Be Released on Serious Grounds. The Petition Was Filed in the Courts of Fairfield County.

LISBON, Dec. 14.—[Special.]—R. L. Edmonston, of East Liverpool, was notified by Sheriff Gill last Saturday evening of divorce and alimony proceedings which had been filed against him in Fairfield county by Amelia M. Edmonston, whom he married six years ago in Lancaster.

Mrs. Edmonston's petition, which was forwarded to this county, says that their one child Russell, who is now three years of age, is with her, and she wants the court to give her the custody of him and reasonable alimony out of her husband's property which she believes is valued at from $3,000 to $4,000. She charges the defendant with a serious crime committed at Wellsville two years ago, and states that at the time she left him it would have been perilous to health and life for her to have lived longer with him.

An effort was made this afternoon to see Mr. Edmonston, but he was not in the city. It will be remembered by many that Mrs. Edmonston has not been here for several years.

TO A HIGHER COURT.

A Defendant Did Not Like Squire Rose's Decision.

LISBON, Dec. 14.—[Special.]—The case of George W. Ingram against John Hancock, tried in the court of Squire Rose several weeks ago, when Ingram recovered judgment for a sewing machine, was appealed to common pleas Saturday evening.

Rollin B. Heath, of Salem, holds a promissory note given 10 years ago in Leetonia by John Scally to Domerick Vanini, and sue to recover $60.

A marriage license was issued to Annias H. Watson and Hattie A. Tullis.

DANIEL WALKED.

The Ben Hur Boatman Put Him on the Wrong Side.

Dan Yant boarded the Ben Hur when it was at the wharf yesterday, and before he could get off the boat was steaming up the river. The wire is thought to be the cause of the buzzing which has annoyed so many patrons of the telephone system for several days. Manager Gilchrist could not locate the defect, although he spent some time going over the city.

CHILDREN ARE WELL.

There Are Now 115 at the Fairmount Home.

M. M. Southworth, superintendent of Fairmount home, was in the city today. The gentleman is making a tour of inspection to see whether children placed in families recently are being well cared for. Mr. Southworth says they have at present 115 children at the home, and all are well. Not one case of sickness has appeared for some time, the little ones being particularly healthy for this season.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The Christian church was packed last night by an appreciative audience. Professor Reed gave what he termed a "doctrinal" sermon. The opinion of his hearers is that it was a sermon teaching with practical Christianity, and that the meat contained in said sermon will prove good food for any man or woman desiring to live a good and pure life.

CALLED HOME.

Miss Cora Henry, a teacher in the Central building, received a telegram yesterday stating her sister, who lives at Zanesfield, was very low with catarrhal fever and would not recover. She has been ill five weeks. Miss Henry left for Zanesfield this morning. Miss Maude Baum will fill her position until she returns.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, DEC. 14

It is only a matter of time until the trusts must die, and now is as good a time for execution as any.

THEY have organized a bimetallic society at Canton, and announce that it is non-partisan. They have peculiar views those Democrats.

You can rely upon it that the Republican congress will handle the tariff in a business-like way, giving all industries
a chance for their lives.

It seems that the gentleman with forked foot and snaky tail is heating an unusually warm suite of rooms for Butcher Weyler down below.

THE long faced chaps, who are bemoaning the election of McKinley and declaring prosperity is not returning,
are the fellows who four years ago
voted for Cleveland and starvation.

A MODERATE tariff may be all right in its way, but we want no moderate tariff if it will not protect our industry from the assaults of Europe and Japan. Potting has suffered greatly these last three years, and certainly deserves all it can get at the hands of congress.

MAJOR MCKINLEY will not be worked to death after the inauguration, for Mr.
Cleveland has provided for that by filling a great many offices under the civil service law, and filling them with his Democratic brethren. Mr. Cleveland is a most considerate gentleman—for himself.

THE OLD RESORT.
When the Democratic press can do no other thing to bolster up its failing cause it can lie, and lie it usually does.
Since the defeat of Bryan and silver was announced almost every Democratic paper in the land has been attempting to counteract the influence of the Republican victory by asserting that prosperity had not returned, forgetting there would be no necessity for better times if their own devilish doctrines had not been transformed into law. Finding this was not effective they turned to prevarication, one of the best samples appearing last week. With a great flourish they are pointing to the fact that the banking house of J. Esterly & Co., of Columbiania, was recently placed in the hands of receivers, and using it as an evidence that times are hard.
Gentlemen, you are wrong. Times are hard, because you made them so, but if all your examples are as that one your argument is no good. That bank is being cared for by receivers because the principal owner dropped dead and the other partner knows nothing of banking.
The heirs asked the receivership in order that the business be wound up. Try again.

IDLE WORDS.

It was sincerely hoped the close of the campaign would for a time at least put an end to the free silver jibber, and the people would be allowed to return to work without suffering the annoyance of a continual howl of calamity. It seems Mr. Bryan thought otherwise.
If a press dispatch from St. Louis is true it is proposed by the silver organization to send through the country 6,000
speakers who will, until the next presidential election, preach their doctrine in all parts of the land, particularly in the east. Like so many ill omens birds of discouragement they will perch themselves in thriving communities, and croak and croak, hoping to frighten the busy toilers from their tasks. But they will croak in vain.
Many years were required before the Democratic party could induce the people to vote as they wished, and now that the nation is only recovering from a severe attack of Democratic administration, many more years will pass before the brain and brawn of America will again sell itself to the enemy. Mr.
Bryan and his speaker friends will doubtless draw their pay from the great silver syndicate with no little satisfaction, but if we mistake not the intelli-

A. F. OF L. CONVENTION MEETS.

The Opening Session Held Today In Cincinnati—The Eight-Hour Work Day Will Be the Most Important Question to Be Considered by the Delegates.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.—The national convention of the American Federation of Labor convened here today, President Gompers presiding. The sessions will continue day and night, except today and tomorrow, when they will be held during the day only. Tonight the delegates will attend the theater as guests of the management of the Grand Opera house. On tomorrow night they will attend a mass reception at Ar-beau hall.

The election of officers will not take place till the closing hours of the convention. Nevertheless, there is talk already of some opposition to the re-election of President Gompers. The man spoken of as his competitor is Mr. W.
B. Prescott of Indianapolis, president of the International Typographical union.
There is no acrimony in this opposition,
and at present it does not seem formidable.

A variety of questions for discussion or action will come before the convention. Among these is that of the eight-hour working day. Efforts will be made to provide for the agitation of this question and to secure speedy favorable legislation on the subject. This question is likely to be the most important topic.

Among the delegates present are John Woods of England and O. Mallin-son of Edinburgh.

WHERE MCKINLEY'S HEART IS.

Talks to His Wife In Chicago by Telephone Each Day and Gets Telegrams.

CANTON, O., Dec. 14.—One of Major McKinley's friends has remarked that since Mrs. McKinley is in Chicago he behaves like a new bridegroom separated for the first time from his bride. Each morning he anxiously awaits a telegram of greeting from her, and each afternoon he calls her up by long distance telephone for a chat. He receives nothing but good reports from her. She has experienced no inconvenience from her journey, is in her usual health and enjoys herself very much.

Nothing can be learned here of the probability of the major going to Chicago, but it would be no surprise to friends should he pack up and start off almost any day. This would be very much in accord with his past record.
In nearly every instance in which Mrs.
McKinley has been separated from him for any considerable time or by any considerable distance, he has joined her in time to accompany her on the homew-ward journey. But, from all information obtainable, if he is to do so this time the decision is yet to be reached.

Friends are constantly urging him to take a little trip out of the city and telling him that he cannot endure without respite the strain of the constant stream of callers, which some days number by hundreds.

The major went to church at his usual place of worship Sunday morning, his old friend, Judge George E.
Baldwin and Captain Heistand accompanied him. After the services he went home with his mother for dinner and part of the afternoon. Later he was joined at his own home by Judge William R. Day, and they were engaged in a social way for some time.

Hanna's Conference With the Senator's Enemies Displeasing.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 14.—The fight for United States senator is growing warmer. Both factions have opened headquarters in this city, and everything points to a hot struggle between Wanamaker and Penrose.

The Penrose faction is somewhat exercised over the fact that Mark Hanna had a long conference with some of the leaders of the Business Men's league in Philadelphia, which is supporting Wanamaker, and it is claimed by the league that this indicates McKinley's preference for Mr. Wanamaker. Quay is earnestly supporting Penrose, and the latter's friends expect him to win easily.

A TRICK OF THE CUBANS,
Such Is Thought to Be the Sending of the Laurada to Spain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The trouble arising over the attempt of the American steamship Laurada to enter the port of Valencia, has been fully chronicled to the authorities here. Senor Duque de Lome, the Spanish minister, was at the state department, and it was understood that his main purpose was to confer with Secretary Olney regarding the Laurada.

No announcement has been made of the attitude of the United States, but there is good reason to believe the officials of both governments will act together to prevent sensational developments and to keep the Laurada from an enforced entrance into a Spanish port, where, it is believed, her entering is designed to stir up a conflict and possibly riot among the excited populace, to bring about an insult to the American flag and cause a rupture.

The Laurada has figured prominently in connection with filibustering charges brought in the courts of the United States. Her owners have been indicted for alleged filibustering, and one of the cases in which the Laurada is concerned comes up for trial at Philadelphia today.

The Penrose faction is somewhat exercised over the fact that Mark Hanna had a long conference with some of the leaders of the Business Men's league in Philadelphia, which is supporting Wanamaker, and it is claimed by the league that this indicates McKinley's preference for Mr. Wanamaker. CUBA DON'T NEED MEN.

Arms, Ammunition and Medicines Now Wanted.

MACEO'S MURDER BRINGS HELP.

Congressmen and Senators and People From Different Sections Aroused to Offer Aid—The French and Mexicans Preparing Contributions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The headquarters of the Cuban legation in this city has been the center of interest to a number of callers who had come to express to Senator Quesada their sorrow at the death of General Maceo and to offer their sympathy and in some cases help for the Cuban cause. These callers included a number of congressmen and two senators, whose names the Cuban representative declined to disclose, but who told him of their desire to see some action taken by congress that would be assistance to the insurgents. Senator Quesada says that he has received during the past few days about 50 letters, many of which come from persons and organizations, offering to send men to assist the Cubans in fighting for liberty. Among the states and cities represented in these letters are Washington, Wyoming, Kansas, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Evansville, Indiana, and Waterbury, Conn. Responsive to these letters Mr. Quesada authorizes his former statement that the Cubans have enough men and leaders to gain the cause for which they are fighting. They can avail themselves of 60,000 men, and more, if necessary, but what they need is arms and ammunition and medicine for the sick and wounded. It is said offers of assistance from abroad have been received. The Paris agent of the junta says that not only the Cubans, but the French people, after hearing of the assassination and death of Maceo, are collecting all they can to send an expedition, to be called the "Expedition of General Maceo," to Cuba. Mr. Quesada states that from San Domingo and Mexico also come assurances of contributions to the cause, while the workingmen and merchants of Tampa, Fla., say they will give not only 10 per cent of their earnings weekly, but will work three Sundays in every month in order to give their wages for free Cuba.

The agent at Jacksonville, Fla., wires that the people can be counted on for rifles. There has been no information received at the headquarters other than a telegram from President Estrada Palma of the Cuban junta, which attributed Maceo's death to assassination through the plot arranged between Ahumada and Dr. Zerucha. The circumstantial accounts of Maceo's death now convince the leaders that there is little doubt that he has been killed, but they reassess that this will not interfere with the success of the Cuban army.

TO HELP FREE CUBA.

A Big Expedition Preparing to Leave Florida—Three Ships in the Fleet. Bearing Men, Arms and Ammunition. May Test Harmon's Decision.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 14.—The steamer Commodore commenced loading for a Cuban expedition early this morning. After loading the arms the owners of the steamer will demand clearance papers for a Cuban port, on authority of the decision of Attorney General Harmon, and custom house officials are expected to grant clearance. If the steamer shall then be seized by a revenue cutter, the owners will turn the vessel over to the government, and then institute suit to recover the value of the vessel and cargo.

The Three Friends and the Dauntless are expected to follow the example of the Commodore, so that there are indications of considerable activity in filibustering circles during the coming week.

A large number of Cubans have arrived in the city from Tampa, and others are reported to have left from Fernandina.

General Carlos Roloff has sailed from some northern port in the Bermuda. It is said he is to be met by two expeditions as he comes south.

According to the best information obtained this is to be the largest combination ever attempted by the Cubans. The Bermuda carries the ammunition, which is given as follows:

Ex-Senator Gear Tells the Attorney General It Is His Duty.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 14.—The aftermath of the Gear bribery trial occurred when the defendant in that trial tried to induce Attorney General Monnett to bring legal proceedings against the prosecuting witness. Ex-Senator Gear of Wyandot went into General Monnett's office and told that official that it was his duty to prosecute the Zanesville postmaster, ex-Senator Gaumer, who testified against Gear for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Gear asserted that the evidence brought out in his own trial last week proved that the legislature had allowed Gaumer for his expenses in the Iden-Gaumer contest more money than he had expended. Gaumer had submitted a bill, one item of which was $257 for court costs. The receipt of the Licking county clerk for the full amount of the costs, $69.15, was filed as part of the evidence in the recent trial. The difference between these accounts, Gear said, represent what Gaumer had secured wrongfully. He deemed it if the attorney general's duty "to go after Gaumer at once," either to recover the amount or to prosecute Senator Gaumer on a more serious charge.

General Monnett said that it was possible a layman might include under court costs items of expenses which a lawyer would know did not belong there, as, for instance, transcription of evidence. He said the case did not come under the head of which he was compelled to take up, but said he would consider the matter.

TRIED TO STEAL $75,000.

Forged Check on Judge Hamilton Presented at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 14.—The name of Judge E. T. Hamilton of Cleveland was forged to a $75,000 check Saturday.

Early in the afternoon a man appeared at the Lorain street bank and presented an order for that amount on the Dime Savings and Building company, payable to C. N. Cunningham. The treasurer offered an excuse for not paying it at once, and Cunningham departed.

Meanwhile the signature had been pronounced a forgery by Judge Hamilton. At 3 o'clock Cunningham again appeared. He was told that the bank had failed to get the money, and was requested to return at 5. He agreed to do so, and has not been seen since.

WHIPPED BY A WOMAN.

She Prevented Burglars Robbing an Old Man Near Wooster.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 14.—At an early hour three masked burglars battered down the door of the farm house of Perry Bristol, an aged man living near here. Just as they entered the house Mrs. Alice Baxter, Bristol's housekeeper, met them with a lamp in her hand.

As one of the burglars attempted to grab her by the throat she hit him in the face with the lamp, breaking it.

She continued to hammer him with the glass handle of the lamp until he beat a retreat and the other two robbers ran away. One of the three was afterwards arrested.

MARION, O., Dec. 14.—David Grone has been robbed by three men, who threw a coffee sack over his head after stealthily approaching him from behind.

They carried him several hundred yards down a railroad track, and after relieving him of all his valuables, among which being a valuable watch, allowed him to go. He was almost suffocated from being closely muffled in the coffee sack. The robbers made their escape without being identified.

THE HOLIDAY RECESS.

An Adjournment of Congress Likely to Occur Friday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—It has not yet been decided when the holiday recess will begin, but at the conference of the Republican members of the ways and means committee a date as early as Friday of this week was suggested.

It is even probable, however, that the recess will begin about Wednesday of this week, and continue until the Monday after the new year.

This week, except today, which is District of Columbia day, and an hour of Tuesday, which has been set aside for the consideration of the bill to transfer the present rights of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad under its government charter to the mortgagees when they reorganize, will be devoted to the consideration of the army and legislative appropriation bills. The former is completed and the latter will be put in final shape today. It is the expectation of the leaders that both these bills will be passed before the recess. Should any time remain it will probably be given to the committees to call up such bills as they have on the calendar.

Arms, Ammunition and Medicines Now Wanted.

MACEO'S MURDER BRINGS HELP.

Congressmen and Senators and People From Different Sections Aroused to Offer Aid—The French and Mexicans Preparing Contributions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The headquarters of the Cuban legation in this city has been the center of interest to a number of callers who had come to express to Senor Quesada their sorrow at the death of General Maceo and to offer their sympathy and in some cases help for the Cuban cause. These callers included a number of congressmen and two senators, whose names the Cuban representative declined to disclose, but who told him of their desire to see some action taken by congress that would be of assistance to the insurgents. Senor Quesada says that he has received during the past few days about 50 letters, many of which come from persons and organizations, offering to send men to assist the Cubans in fighting for liberty.

Among the states and cities represented in these letters are Washington, Wyoming, Kansas, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Evansville, Indiana, and Waterbury, Conn. Responsive to these letters Mr. Quesada authorizes his former statement that the Cubans have enough men and leaders to gain the cause for which they are fighting. They can avail themselves of 60,000 men, and more, if necessary, but what they need is arms and ammunition and medicine for the sick and wounded. It is said offers of assistance from abroad have been received. The Paris agent of the junta says that not only the Cubans, but the French people, after hearing of the assassination and death of Maceo, are collecting all they can to send an expedition, to be called the "Expedition of General Maceo," to Cuba. Mr. Quesada states that from San Domingo and Mexico also come assurances of contributions to the cause, while the workmen and merchants of Tampa, Fla., say they will give not only 10 per cent of their earnings weekly, but will work three Sundays in every month in order to give their wages for free Cuba.

The agent at Jacksonville, Fla., wires that the people can be counted on for 100 rifles. There has been no information received at the headquarters other than a telegram from President Estrada Palma of the Cuban junta, which attributed Maceo's death to assassination through the plot arranged between Ahmad and Dr. Zertucha.

The circumstantial accounts of Maceo's death now convince the leaders that there is little doubt that he has been killed, but they reassert that this will not interfere with the success of the Cuban army.

TO HELP FREE CUBA.

A Big Expedition Preparing to Leave Florida—Three Ships in the Fleet. Bearing Men, Arms and Ammunition. May Test Harmon's Decision.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 14.—The steamer Commodore commenced loading for a Cuban expedition early this morning. After loading the arms the owners of the steamer will demand clearance papers for a Cuban port, on authority of the decision of Attorney General Harmon, and custom house officials are expected to grant clearance. If the steamer shall then be seized by a revenue cutter, the owners will turn the vessel over to the government, and then institute suit to recover the value of the vessel and cargo.

The Three Friends and the Dauntless are expected to follow the example of the Commodore, so that there are indications of considerable activity in filibustering circles during the coming week.

A large number of Cubans have arrived in the city from Tampa, and others are reported to have left from Fernandina.

General Carlos Roloff has sailed from some northern port in the Bermuda. It is said he is to be met by two expeditions as he comes south.

TONY HAD A BIG DAY

The New Officer Arrested Three Drunken Men.

NOT ONE OWNED A PENNY

When Mayor Gilbert Said Each Owed the City $6.75—Cain's Friends Interested Themselves In His Behalf, But the Others Went on the Streets.

Officer Bertele is making a record as an efficient policeman, and all the arrests of yesterday were placed to his credit.

A telephone message announcing the presence of a plain drunk at Second and Broadway, was sent to city hall at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Officer Bertele answered the call, and found Henry Cain very drunk. He had some trouble in getting the man to jail. Cain could not deny the charge at the mayor's reception, and was fined $6.75. Not having the money, he was locked up until friends, who had interested themselves in his behalf, could raise the amount.

Officer Bertele sent in a patrol call at 5 o'clock, and going to Fifth and Market streets the officers found him in charge of Charles Amos and Stiffy Drabble. The pair had been annoying pedestrians, and the officer ordered them to move on. They refused, and were arrested. Mayor Gilbert gave each $6.75, and when they uttered, mournfully, the one word "broke," ordered them put on the streets until the claim was satisfied.

There were a number of police calls Saturday night, but no arrests. One drunk stationed himself in the doorway of a Broadway store, and refused to move. An officer was called, and he left.

"Are you drowning?" he shouted.

"I am," replied a feeble voice from the water.

"Only a Girl" was the subject of Doctor Reager's sermon at the Methodist Episcopal church last night. The church was crowded, and many were unable to gain admission. He believes she is a powerful factor in the political affairs of the country, and it will not be long until they hold important positions in the legislative and judicial departments of the government.

Wellsboro Is Morally the Best Town on the River.

Wellsboro has been unusually good for several weeks, and the police have little to do. Even Tophet has quieted, and not a row has been reported from that quarter for weeks. The one victim who fell into the hands of the authorities last week was N. W. Hendrickson, who had looked upon the glass when it was a color different from the deep brown of river water. Mayor Jones gave him $1 and costs, and he was locked up until he can pay.
